

Department of Human Services Interdisciplinary Graduate Courses

Graduate Program	Inter-disciplinary Grad Courses (open to grad students outside of specific program)	When the class is generally offered	Modality / Location of Offering
COUN	COUN 612: Sexuality Counseling	Summer	In person at BP -June
	COUN 615: Cross-Cultural Counseling	Spring	In person at BP. Day section and night section options
	COUN 617: Addictions Counseling	Spring	In person at BP. Day section and night section options.
	COUN 628: Grief and Loss Counseling	Summer	Hybrid, in person meetings weekly. July
	COUN 650: Career Development	Summer	Online
	COUN 693: Special Topics (topics and semesters vary)	Varies	Varies - online and in-person
EdD	Topics vary; most are related to Higher Education (Program Evaluation - Fall; The Presidency - Spring)	Varies	Online
EOE	EOE 627: Wilderness Education	Summer travel course in May/ June	Travel course
	EOE 621: Interpretation and Environmental Education	Spring-one day per week for 3 hours	F2F 1 afternoon (M or F) in Cullowhee
	EOE 623: Youth Development	Fall	Online
	EOE 624: Social Media, Technology and EOE	Fall	Online
	EOE 626: Interpreting the Natural World for EOE	Fall	Hybrid (online and 3 weekends)
	EOE 630: Outdoor and Sustainability Education: A Pedagogy of Place	Spring	Online
	EOE 622: Social Theory in EOE	Summer	Online

Updated January 2023

HESA	HESA 605 - Introduction to Higher Education Student Affairs	Fall	F2F
	HESA 611 - Organization, Administration & Finance in Higher Ed	Fall	F2F
	HESA 615 - History of Higher Education	Fall	F2F
	HESA 650 - Program Assessment & Evaluation [service-learning course]	Fall	F2F
	HESA Elective (Rotating Special Topics)	Spring	F2F
HR	HR 605: "Principles & Practice in Human Resources"	Every semester	Online
	HR 660: "Talent Development"	Fall	Online
	HR 665: "Responsible HR Leadership: The Regulatory Environment, Ethics, & Social Responsibility"	Spring	Online
	HR 677: " Digital HR and People Analytics"	Summer	Online
MSA	NONE		