“Go abroad! WCU has some great partnerships with universities all over the world.”

OLIVIA MARQUEZ

PURSUING: SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY, S.S.P.

PSYCHOLOGY, B.S., SPANISH, B.A., WESTERN CAROLINA UNIVERSITY '20

Olivia was drawn to WCU because it was close to home. After graduating with a double major in Spanish and psychology, she decided to continue her education at WCU because of the positive undergraduate experience and because it is one of the few universities in North Carolina to offer the Specialist in School Psychology graduate program. Olivia loves the environment of Western and the relationships between staff and students. Olivia has found that the faculty are supportive, personable, and want her to be the best future professional she can be. She studied abroad for a semester in Valencia, Spain, and it was the best decision she ever made. Her goal is to work as a school psychologist in western North Carolina and help fill the gap of a lack of bilingual school psychologists.
